ACPA Names Bazey Outstanding Materials Supplier

Skokie, Ill.—The American Concrete Pavement Association (ACPA) has named Sarah Bazey, President of Simplex Construction Supplies, Inc., as the first recipient of its Outstanding Materials Supplier award, for her leadership and commitment to the concrete pavement industry.

ACPA recognizes Sarah Bazey for making significant strides in unifying ACPA's Materials Division, as well as providing leadership and support of ACPA's Membership Development Program.

"Sarah brings tremendous energy and fervent enthusiasm to the concrete pavement industry and to the Association," said Gerald F. Voigt, ACPA's President & CEO in presenting Bazey with the award. "She has demonstrated outstanding leadership skills and is quick to provide both strategic direction and tactical guidance to a wide range of Association activities."

As well as being a member of the ACPA Board of Directors and Executive Committee, Bazey was a charter member of the Innovative Pavement Research Foundation's Board of Directors. She has demonstrated leadership, tireless dedication and unwavering support of ACPA and the concrete pavement industry.

Each year, ACPA recognizes a select number of people and projects that represent the best-of-the-best in the concrete pavement industry, as well as the public sector.

These awards recognize the commitments and accomplishments of some of the most forward thinking and determined professionals in the transportation community.

ACPA is the national trade association for the concrete pavement industry. ACPA and its network of regional chapters and state paving associations (covering the contiguous United States) represent members in marketing/promotion, government affairs, and research/technical support associated with concrete pavements used for highways, airports, streets, and roads.

ACPA's members include paving contractors, cement companies, equipment manufacturers, material and service suppliers, ready-mixed concrete producers, allied associations/organizations, bonding and insurance companies, consulting firms, and other allied organizations and individuals.
